About Me

Hello, Welcome to My Web Design Portfolio. My name is Brandon Powell. This website is to showcase my work in the IT world. I'm currently working part-time as a pest controller and studying. When I'm not working or studying, I'm amusing my neices either in the pool or helping my oldest neice with painting and drawing.

My goal is to be able to complete this course and hopefully secure a full-time job and then pursue more studying to develop my knowledge to hopefully be able to start a career in cybersecurity.
